BRECKENRIDGE NEWS.

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 18, 1899.

HARDINSBURG.

Hillary Mattingly has returned home from Louisville.

Jesse Whitworth and Alf Jenson went to Cloverport last Sunday.

Rev. J. W. Bigham and family left last Monday for Princeton, Ky.

Mex Baker, of the firm of Baker Bros., has been quite ill for two weeks.

Jesse Kadrige was at home from Owensboro, last Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Amanda Lewis and children are visiting their father, Mr. Henry Lewis.

Beard and Hensley have begun the foundation for their mammoth ware house.

Prof. Roberts and wife went to Louisville last Friday and returned Sunday night.

J. A. Witt, who has been complaining for sometime, seems to be improving gradually.

Wanted—I want to buy two or three barrels of good sorghum. Will pay cash.

Y. G. Babbage.

years mention, Scott Morton, Dr. J. T. the last three y Bupok and R. May went to the this period today.

any note, exonerate delegation from this ing the street carnival in e, this week.

Beavin came up from Beech

on his bicycle last Sunday to at-services at the Catholic church.

Rev. W. V. Harrold, who lives on the north fork of Rough creek, has accepted

a call to the Baptist church at Harned.

Misses Ella Miller, Lillie Scott, and

Mary Board, have been in Louisville for the last week, attending the street carnival.

There were a couple of tobacco buyers

from Henderson county in this county

last week, looking at the burley tobacco crop.

C. Royalty is in Louisville this week attending the session of the Grand Lodge. He was accompanied by his wife and children.

It is rumored that young Peyton Scott and Miss Fronie Pate, the daughter of Mr. W. N. Pate, a prosperous farmer of Beech Fork, are soon to be married.

Rev. James Lewis, pastor, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Kimble, of Elizabethtown, denounced Goebel and the Democratic party in severe terms. The Goebelites were not pleased with it, and what he said met with strong criticism on the part of a great number of them.

Riding along by old Germantown a few days since I could not help but notice the farm lands surrounding the place that seemed to have been thrown out and given over to the brown sage and undergrowth. What a pity. This old town is only two miles from a railroad station, and the land surrounding it is as level as a floor. There are a few farms in cultivation of course, but some of the land has been thrown out. Some of this land can possibly be bought at a small figure and by proper cultivation could be made to blossom as a rose in a few years.

The commonwealth's business in the circuit court last week was unusually light. There was not a single case in which there was a defense of any consequence unless it was the indictments against the Chapin distillery and they were thrown out on demurr. There was no case in which an attorney was given an opportunity to speak before the jury, and that probably never happened here before during the session of the Circuit court. The lawyers were somewhat lamenting the fact, because they always love to hear the sound of their own voice. The entire criminal docket could have been disposed of in one day.

BIG SPRING.

Meyer leads 'em all.

Meyer wants your trade.

Bro. Parker preached at the Baptist church Sunday.

Mrs. James Harned was in Louisville

visiting relatives last week.

The latest goods in house furnishings

are being shown at Meyer's.

the guest of Miss Mayme Barnard.

Miss Ollie May Clarkson is in Louisville

attending Hampton college.

H. Meyer will meet your wants in clothing, dry goods, boots and shoes.

Mr. Jess Horrell, of Cecilia, was the guest of Miss Daisy Meador, Sunday.

All kinds of staple and fancy groceries

constantly kept on hands at Meyer's.

John Meador was in Brandenburg

Sunday, the guest of Miss Fannie Phillips.

Mr. Haro Jenkins, of Glendale, was here Sunday the guest of Miss Ruby Miller.

You who may need a fall or winter

overcoat; cannot do better than to visit H. Meyer.

Charles Moorman, one of our brightest boys, has been admitted to the bar to practice law.

Mr. Harry Scott, of Vine Grove, was here Sunday to attend the funeral of Miss Nichols, his niece.

Messrs. Guy Meador, John Morris,

Bill Pendleton and Herman Meyer were in Louisville last week.

Miss Mattie Nichols, a young lady

just budding into womanhood, died Saturday of typhoid fever.

Mrs. Miller and daughter, Miss Annie

Jones, of Hardinsburg, are here visiting her daughter, Mrs. G. A. Meador.

Tuesday and dislocated her shoulder.

She is being attended by Dr. Strother, who reports her doing well.

Rev. W. A. Hyatt will fill the pulpit

at the Methodist church for the ensuing year. He comes from West Point.

His congregation there speaks highly of him and give him up with a feeling of regret.

GLENDANE.

John Deane is in Louisville.

Ernest Robertson went to Fordville

Saturday.

Thos. L. Curtis went to Hardinsburg

Saturday.

Mr. Dewees is in Louisville this week

buying goods.

Charley Deane was in Louisville a few days last week.

Water source. Public well fails in the afternoon these days.

Miss Groves went to Fordville Saturday to stay over Sunday.

Miss Ota Whitely, of near Hudaon, enters Utopia for the year.

Mrs. Lawrence has returned from a visit of several weeks in Owensboro.

Eddie L. Moorman and Styles Howard, pedagogues, went to Fordville Saturday.

It was last Saturday. It is a nine pound girl. L. H. Pate is the happy man.

Norman Hensley, of Hardinsburg,

stayed in the depot during the absence of Mr. Curtis Saturday.

Summer weather. Thermometer at Dewees' registered 99° Saturday. No

hearsay. Saw it myself.

Our merchants are rushed. All they need is more clerks. Have lots of customers, delighted ones, too.

Mrs. John Lewis, of Hardinsburg, was here Sunday to see Richard Lewis, who is not expected to live long.

Dr. McMullen was here Saturday. He reports considerable sickness at McDaniels. Several cases of typhoid fever.

Harry Stum received a message Sunday that his brother-in-law, R. D. Welborn, of Central City, was very ill. He left at once to see him.

Robbie Spencer, one of McDaniel's best farmers, was here Saturday. He says farmers are busy and stock water

source over there.

A big crowd attended the closing exercises of the colored folks' meeting Sunday. Hardinsburg, Leitchfield and Cloverport were represented.

Fire broke out on two sides of town

Saturday. Prompt action controlled them. Dave Moorman lost some fowls.

Squire Moorman lost a thousand or two rails.

The Rev. Reynolds and wife, late of Fordsville, were guests at Mr. Stum's

Sunday. The last conference sent Mr.

Reynolds to Hawesville. He had been two years at Fordsville.

Miss Lucile Vassola and Clarence

Lewis, of Hardinsburg, were here Sunday. Miss Alma Mattingly and Betty

Howard accompanied them back, returning on the night train.

Lowell may ask, "What is so rare as a day in June?" and Riley may write

"Knee Deep in June," but half of the poetic souls are satisfied with these beautiful fall days and fine moonlit nights.

Ed Fry, who has been with John

Deane for nine years, will leave Glen-deane this fall. Somebody will have a fine tobacco handler if Ed takes a position elsewhere, for no one beats him

when he does his best.

Mr. John Rhodes and three attractive youth ladies, namely, his two daughters and Miss Lena Mattingly, passed through town Saturday for Owensboro. They will attend the wedding of a relative, a

Miss Goff. Didn't learn the groom's name.

There was a comfortable, quiet excursion to Louisville last Saturday. Among the ones from Glendane were: Mrs. W.

R. Moorman, Mrs. "Buck" Moorman,

four of Mr. Louis Ashley's sons, Miss

May Dempster, Misses Mary and Louise

Moorman and Rod Mattingly.

Your scribe has accepted a Saturday clerkship with Mr. Dewees. Please write any bit of news and hand to him

for insertion in the paper the next week.

Let him have names of visitors, any important business transactions, and all news items. Assist in this matter and do your duty to your visitors and your friends elsewhere.

We deem ourselves fortunate in welcoming another physician among us. Dr.

Green comes to us well recommended as a physician of recognized ability and mature experience and he and his wife are both leaders in all christian work.

They will be strong factors in church work among us and we trust their success

materially may make it possible for us to claim them permanently.

How nice 'twould be to go to sleep and wake up on election day just in time to vote. Falsehood, speculation, exaggeration, misrepresentation, nearly the entire business becomes treacherous. Even some of those who would "purify politics" are not without fault. A man's talk is not always a sure criterion of his character. The purification process might be carried along other lines to immense advantage. Pure officials and pure politics are no more to be desired than pure voters and pure lives. I'm always glad that somebody said: "Consistency, thou art a jewel."

BEWLEYVILLE.

Still the drought continues.

Our school was half out Friday.

Saturday was the schoolteacher's good day.

Dr. Walker and his daughter, Miss

Minnie, attended a funeral at Germantown

last Saturday.

Set it down that the "way to beat

Goebel is to vote for Taylor."

Sunday was a bright, lovely day and a number of people attended Sunday-school and church.

R. V. Moore, of Hardinsburg, preached

in the Baptist church Saturday and Sunday at 11 o'clock and Sunday evening.

David Hardsway is quite a hunter these days. He hunts Sundays and evenings and he says he has found a

"Dear."

Rev. Mell will preach in the Methodist church Saturday and Sunday, October

21st and 22d, at 11 a. m. Everybody ought to come out to hear him.

Mrs. Darling, of Carrollton, who has been visiting Mrs. Chas. Drury, spent a few days with Mrs. Kate Bennett last week and then returned to her home.

Quite a crowd of friends and neighbors attended the wedding at Mr. Moreno last Tuesday. The bride wore a lovely traveling suit, and it was a happy affair.

The reports of the appearance and preaching of our new preacher, Bro.

Mell, at Irvington Sunday are such as to encourage and we look forward to a pro-

perous year in church work.

October is truly the Queen of the Months, and was never lovelier than this year. The "melancholy days" are the best, and who can't enjoy living now has not a capacity for enjoyment, so let's throw dull care to the winds and have a good time.

KIRK, KY.

Frank Rappert, Balltown, was here

Friday.
